- A) The Iowa Horse Council sponsorship process is formal and available for Iowa applicants. Sponsorship applications for the Iowa Horse Council must be received on or before the deadline dates listed above and be on the application forms provided or by downloading the on-line application form located on the horse council web site <http://www.iowahorsecouncil.org>. Additional supportive material may be added as deemed necessary. Failure to observe any and all instructions may result in automatic disqualification.
- B) Sponsorship awards are between $50 and $150.
- C) The Sponsorship program is designed to benefit the welfare of horses and support a broad range of horse related projects. Examples of types of activities that may receive a sponsorship include educational clinics, horse shows, 4H or FFA clinics, etc. Sponsorships will not be awarded for buildings, fencing, arena improvement projects, salaries, individuals or political causes.
- D) Groups receiving a sponsorship will acknowledge the contribution of the Iowa Horse Council to this program or project wherever and whenever appropriate to the project or program. This could but not be limited to press releases, construction signage, brochures or programs (i.e., This program/project made possible by funds contributed by the Iowa Horse Council).
